

Publica

URBAN DESIGNER AND PROJECT ASSISTANT

About Publica

Publica is a research and urban design agency that works at a variety of scales, from the detailed design of a single street to setting the vision and strategy for an entire district. We are an ambitious and energetic company that advises local authorities, landowners, developers, architects and community organisations, both in London and abroad. Our projects are driven by rigorous analysis of place and context, combining active, in-depth fieldwork and documentation with an ongoing study of international best practice.

The team

Publica's team has detailed knowledge and understanding of urban conditions, coupled with a high level of technical expertise in the fields of public realm and urban design, strategic planning, research, film production, communications and graphic design. We place great emphasis on producing engaging, informative and accessible communications material as an integral part of our project work, in the dissemination of our research, and as a tool for advocating for a holistic, evidence-based approach to urban growth.

The positions

Urban Designer candidates should have RIBA II, Masters or equivalent qualification. Project Assistant candidates should have a minimum of RIBA Part I or equivalent qualification. Both candidates should have professional experience of producing urban design and public realm proposals including detailed analytical work. Further desirable attributes for both candidates include excellent drawing, mapping, photography and writing skills.

At Publica, you will work as part of a multi-disciplinary team, preparing and delivering public realm strategies, masterplans and concept designs for sites across London and the UK.

Salary

Negotiable, based on experience.
